

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A three-dimensional mobile construction is fabricated as a two dimensional object and thereafter expanded into a three dimensional configuration suited for suspension as a mobile. Cut lines in a web defines elements linked in a

- 5 contiguous arrangement, and the elements are moved out of the plane of the web to create the three dimensional display.